

Welcome to APSI Ohio

The court has appointed APSI to serve as your guardian and to advocate for your best quality of life!

WHAT YOU'LL GET FROM APSI

- Informed consent and advocating so you have opportunities to learn new skills and explore new activities
- Making decisions about your culture, faith, and interests based on your background
- Encouragement to share your opinions on decisions you are facing
- Help to exercise your rights (like the right to vote)
- Discussions using Supported Decision Making to explore your increased independence
- Checking if you still need the support of a guardian in your life
- In-person visits and support to ensure your physical and emotional health needs are met
- 24/7 availability to help with medical emergencies and unexpected needs

WHAT APSI WANTS FROM YOU

- Updates about changes in your life about your health, home, relationships, and work when they happen
- Honestly sharing your fears, preferences, and plans about your current situation
- Continually sharing your wants and needs with your APSI Rep (and team)
- Willingness to consider advice and recommendations from doctors and other professionals
- Participation at team meetings, doctor visits, treatments, and assessments
